“ Dwayne was a great neighbor and friend. He would always stop and chat if he saw me in the driveway or outside. I still remember years ago he came up and helped me change a water pump on my car. Then there was the time we were the(KCCUC) Kingsgate Curb Clean Up Crew. He will be missed ! Prayers for the family

“ Dwayne and I were in the East Tennessee Veterans Honor Guard together. I truly enjoyed our time together. Dwayne was a very humorous addition to our Guard. I do have one recollection. Dwayne, I just wanted to tell you that you had me shaking when you handed me the bugle to play when it was just my first time with the Guard. I was new and didn't even have my uniform yet. You said, "Jack, your going to play the bugle." I thought you you were joking but we were short members that day and I was the "volunteer" for the bugle. I will miss you 'ol buddy. Smooth sailing.
