“ Our best story about DeeDee was told to us by my uncle, Reid McMurtry, Jr., shortly before his death. Reid had been watching DeeDee and some other guy play pool. DeeDee won. The other guy was a sore loser. He began to throw some words out that my Uncle did not think were necessary. In fact, he threatened to beat DeeDee up! Well, that didn't go over well with my Uncle, so he stepped in front of the guy and said, "OK, but you will have to go through me first." What made it so funny - my Uncle was a big, stout man, who could go bear hunting with a stick, and nothing pleased him more than a good fight every now and then. Needless to say, the guy backed off and a good time was had by all the remainder of the evening.

“ We at Riverwood Tower's will miss DeeDee. He was part of our family for 20+ years. He was always joking and enjoying life. He made many friends through the years. And he'll be sadly missed. Our hearts and prayers go out for his family. Sincerely
From His Riverwood Towers Family.

“ I will always remember when we brought our son home from the hospital...He said "You named your baby after two wild men of the west" . I would get so aggravated when he would say that.
