“ Oh Aunt Jo! I hate you had to leave but you were one of the strongest, assertive, and most beautiful women that I have ever known. You raised 2 children that loved you so much! They will be lost without you, but the comfort that you brought them up knowing that the world can't run them over and to stand for all they believe in is so reassuring. I have always admired you and hoped to be at least 1/2 the woman you were. You always carried your age and beauty well. Memories of you are flooding my mind and I couldn't possibly pinpoint one to share. I can say that you will be greatly missed by your children, grandbabies, brother, sisters, nieces, and nephews. You had many friends who loved you. Everyone's life that you have touched will be blessed in knowing you were a part of their life. I love you so much and will miss your presence in my earthly life. Fly high Aunt Jo, and sing sweet songs with Tommy, Memaw, Papaw, and all the family and friends I know you are with that have gone on before you.

Love you BIG,

Tab
