“ I met Adam when I was hired as his assistant on Ft. Campbell. A civilian never having been subject to the military way. I wouldn't have survived without Adam's kind and understanding ways. Rest in peace, my friend. Sandy Ator

“ My deepest condolences to Adam's family and closest friends during this sorrowful time. I was fortunate enough to finally meet Adam face to face during a visit to Ft. Campbell last fall before departing the company. He was an excellent peer and mentor and truly the only one who directly understood the stresses and struggles I was dealing with throughout that time. There were many phone calls and venting sessions to each other during that time and I was glad to call him a friend. The aviation community, the MWO community, and the world are all a lesser place without him. I know the Lord has him safely now, but the world is darker without him here.

“ Hey Adam, I know you can't read this but I never got the opportunity to thank you for the position working at Amentum. I got to meet and work alongside some awesome people for about a year. This also made it possible for me to move home and restart my life with my family in Oregon. That ticket was worth more than gold and I can't be more grateful. I hope you're at peace, God bless you and your family.
