“ My heartfelt sympathies to the Boulton's family as you cope with the loss of two loved one. May it help you to know that the hearts of others are deeply touched by your loss. Although your heart ache, notice what Jesus himself said he will do about death. (Please read John 5:28,29)

“ It was a joy to know Mr. and Mrs. Boulton. They traded at Clinard Drug Co. for many years and I have fond memories of them as they would come to pick up medicine between trips to Lake Tansi and other time shares.

I have been out of touch with them for several years and back in the fall was able to go by and give Mrs. Jessie a flu shot. It was good to see them, but sad to see Mrs. Boulton in her condition. Mr. Alec has been such a wonderful caregiver and then when the cancer came it was so difficult. I will hold on to many great memories and know they are now with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and truly living.
