“Mandi I am so lost without you. You were the one I went too when times got tough. You knew just what to say and made things seem so much easier. I know you are in heaven right now and all the other angels are rejoicing over you. I will miss you each day and will never forget you. You were the best friend that many long for. I will be your friend throughout eternity.

“I could write a book about our memories together. I could always tell just from the way you walked you were mad about something. I remember getting tattoos together in Memphis. Doing cartwheels with the kids in the front yard. Our fights and how we would cry together when we made up. I could go on and on. I will always love you and miss you and hold those memories close to my heart.

“ I will forever miss you, I will forever hold you close to my heart, you will forever be my family, and I will forever ask the question why so soon? You were taken from this earth way to soon. In that I know that you will forever watch over your children, you will forever watch over your new grandbaby, and you will forever try to ease your mothers pain. I love you Amanda Kay and I hope that you never ever forget that. You and I are family and no matter what job god needed you for, you will forever be needed & wanted in this life by YOU'R FAMILY. I love you.
