“ Mandy was such a sweet friend. I have often told my girls of her and of you guys' family from when we were kids. When Traci babysat them and I would spend the night and we would swim, rip and run all over the house, get whatever we wanted, whenever we wanted it, going to riverfront on the boat to watch fireworks for the 4th, and more! Mandy and I had a big time as kids then as "the little sisters" to all the big girls. Mandy and I recently talked about those times and I found pictures of us too. I have great memories and my family sure loves you all. Mom loved her and Kimmy being her neighbors and loved all of the time they shared. Also, a fellow class of 2000 gal, though at East Robertson for some of high school, we are still all one. Love you all and praying for all of you, especially the Baby. Mandy was and IS a precious soul. 💕

“ Mandy was a beautiful soul. Late one night I was going through some things and she reached out to me letting me know she was just a phone call away and to keep fighting through the pain and never give up. A memory I will treasure as long as I live. She was loved by so many and will be missed even more. Love you gf! Fly high with Jesus beautiful! 🕊️
