“ My sympathy to the family & friends of Angela (Sid as I knew her) She was a beautiful person, who could brighten anyone's day. She fought the biggest fight, never letting her spirit get her down. She will be greatly missed. I am glad to have met and know. She will be an angel in the sky looking down on each of us.

“ I would like to give my sincerest condolences to Angela's Family, Angela was like a second mother to me, we both met each other while playing an online computer game, at the age of fifteen I was quite young, and the youngest of our group called FreeRain, I was taken in with open arms, she was the most inspirational person I've ever known, she was kind, thoughtful and caring to all, I grew up around her and fellow friends back then I was just a child. Now at the age of nineteen, thanks to her wisdom and guidance, i've become a decent person in todays society. while looking back I've learned a lot, we all use to tell stories, encourage each other and help one another. Angela had a big heart which was filled with Joy every single day.

She shared her life with everyone, she praised her family & friends, she put them first above everything, Chatting ranged from computers, to pies, to places she's visited and even her amazing family, which each family member had an online nickname. Which to be frank I did take an interest into her daughter who was interested in Japanese Culture, as I too am into Japanese Culture/Entertainment, which I did get the chance to converse with, but I was surprised that she was like a mini-angela, so much wisdom and strength at a young age.

Thank you Angela for helping me throughout my life and being a good friend, I shall treasuring your memories forever. Sayonara!

“ I met her 2 years ago on the Evony game and kept in touch. She was the most gracious Lady I've ever met online. She played with ethics and compassion.
I wish her the best wherever she is now. She will be sadly missed.

“Death is nothing at all. It does not count. I have only slipped away into the next room. Nothing has happened. Everything remains exactly as it was. I am I, and you are you, and the old life that we lived so fondly together is untouched, unchanged. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by the old familiar name. Speak of me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference into your tone. Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without an effort, without the ghost of a shadow upon it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was. There is absolute and unbroken continuity. What is this death but a negligible accident? Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner. All is well. Nothing is hurt; nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as it was before. How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again!”

“Karl and family, my heart is broken for you all. What a walk of faith you and Angela have walked these years. Your Christian example has been uplifting, encouraging and faith-strengthening for all who share your faith and your story. Please know how much you are loved and appreciated. I am so glad I got to meet Angela. She was my favorite kind of Southern girl! Also, we here at SECD are thinking of you. Always and with love, Nancy Merritt my deepest condolences on your loss. Angela was a special person, a good friend and always joyful. I will remember her in so many ways, her stories about her life in Tennessee, her great husband who showed her so many places in the world. Her crazy/funny non-conformist children, she loved you so much, her friends around the world. Her faith in God, the joy she had from singing in the choir. She was so amazing and so appreciative of everything she received, she had a big heart. She even put up with a Yankee like me, who didn't quite understand Southern drawl but we did have some fun with boot stomping and Pecan pie. I will miss her. Keep her close and dear in your hearts as she is with God and will be looking down to see how everyone is doing.

“ *Anna is a special friend and I talked to her on many occasions. She has friends in our alliance through our common online game. While just a game you get to know people personally and interact with them daily, building bonds and friendships. She will be missed by many and was brave and strong in her battles.
Our hearts and prayers go out to her friends and family. May she now rest in peace and bask in heaven's sun.
We will miss her.

“ Angela, I will miss our conversations and hearing about your amazing life. you are still my inspiration, so full of courage and strength. I can feel you and see you in everything beautiful around me, I know you are smiling down on your family and friends. My deepest sympathies still go out to your lovely family. Stay strong kiddos, your mom wouldnt have you be any other way. Follow her lead and you can make it through anything. Though I wont be able to travel for the services I am planting a rose bush in Angelas honor. You will be missed you very special and dear friend. Love Kelli (the coffee girl) xoxo

“ A true southern lady in all of its meanings. Angie was our "room mom" in our little computer game. She often said we were her support group but i feel that we gained as much from knowing her and talking with her that i think even she knew. We all grew to love and respect her. The world is short a true blessing but heaven has gained a strong woman. My prayers to her family. She will be missed by more than you can imagine as she touched so many hearts around the world through the little computer screen where she visited us regularly. All our love dear angel.
