“ I just looked at the memory pictures and they depicted the kind lady, who had a beautiful smile and could be funny or say something to make you laugh. She was so beautiful in her spirit and outward appearance.

I celebrate with you her going home to be with her Heavenly Father and her first born child, Angie for whom her grief never ceased. She has gathered with the Saints and is free from all things on earth now. Praise be to God!

To the family, my thoughts and prayers are with you.

I lived next door to Ann Barber for several years. Those were good years I remember. We were all fairly young and happy. She was a person that I admired and enjoyed being with. Her son was born 3 weeks after my daughter and they grew up as friends. Hadn't seen her for a long time, and tears came when I heard about her passing. But she's in a much better place now and not sick any longer.
