“ Ann was so brave and always caring for others. Her family came first and nothing stood in her way, always making sure her children were taken care of. I remember her always offering encouragement, praising, and lifting people up. She spoke her mind, and too bad if you didn't like it. She worked hard but was always ready for fun and laughs. She was very brave until the end. She had such grand plans for the future after taking care of Dave for so long. She was going to visit here in Florida and stay with my mom in the winter and mom was going to stay with her in the summer. They were going to travel and have so much fun. She will be missed by so many. I love you Aunt Ann.
