“ Ann was my friend for more than forty years. During those years, we saw each other through the ups and downs of our lives. We celebrated special occasions and mourned losses all while trying to solve the problems of our world. As girlfriends, we enjoyed shopping together, spent countless hours on the phone, and shared our joys as well as our worries. As couples, our "gang" of friends hosted dinner parties, went out to eat together, and traveled extensively. From the Pacific Northwest and Alaska to the Caribbean, from the Grand Canyon to New England, and many points in between, we enjoyed exploring the highways and byways of our country. Ann was my biggest cheerleader. I will always remember her support, words of encouragement, and love. She was a wonderful friend and I will miss her for the rest of my life.

“ To all of you cousins...Each and everyone of you are in my thoughts and prayers. I wish I had some memories of Ann I could share with you all. But, being raised in Illinois away from all of you precious cousins, unfortunately prevents me from doing so. May our Lord comfort all of you with the only true comfort He provides. Love all of you!
