“ Where do I start to share memories with and of Ann. After we moved to Dividing Ridge Road, we met Ann and Charles and became very good friends. We went on vacations, out to eat at least once a week and sometimes more often. We played board games and cards often in the evening after work. Ann would laugh and tell about Barry and Kevin playing golf in the cemetery as little boys. So many times of fun and sad times also. We did ceramics at our house and in their garage. As the years progressed JoAnn and Brice Long, Barbara and Harold Richmond and Betty and Harvey Harris joined us in our pot luck meals and eating out. This last year on the first Monday of most months Ann and I would go out to eat when Lee went to VFW meetings.. Also we went with the Spring Hill Babes for fun lunches. These Monday nights and lunches, I will miss. We laughed together and cried together. I am going to miss her so much. Thank you Ann for being my long time friend. I love you. Joyce Duke
