“ I have the most happy memory of Mrs. Annie, we had went to the market in Lynn's truck, while she was visiting Lynn in Livingston, on our way home, we got stop by the police and Bobby Wooden had just called me and said be careful and don't get stop by the cops, to late. Mrs Annie spoke right up and told the cop, "This is my son's truck, Virgil, it's OK." The cop just wanted to let us know he had a tail light out, scared me but not her, she kept right on talking and that cop finally said everything was alright we could leave. She sure was a joy to my heart.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Miss Annie. I used to work with her at Wal-Mart many years ago. She was a very kind and loyal friend.

“ Each of you loved by Miss Annie: As friends (old & new), neighbors and acquaintances , whether we are near or now afar, how many are the times we've laughed together, ate together and shared memories together? Well, NOW IT'S TIME THAT WE SHED TEARS WITH ALL OF YOU! For we see the deep void that's now again in your lives & hearts from another loss that grieves all of you, especially this loss of your mother. Also, a dear friend to many throughout her life. Each day, as you individually cope, may you be strengthened by the support of Psalm 46:1" (Jehovah) God is for us a refuge and strength, A help that is readily to be found during distresses." And the assurance of Numbers 23:19, "(Jehovah)God is not a man that he should tell lies, Neither a son of mankind that he should feel regret. Has he himself said it and will he not do it, And has he spoken and will he not carry it out?"

And during your time of great grief, Jehovah, the God of All Comfort, sees your pain and the challenges of physically missing Miss Annie's presence. And to give us Hope Jehovah has plans to again physically restore loss life on Earth as guaranteed at Acts 24:15, Revelation 21:3-5 & Isaiah 45:18.

Until then, may you gain comfort in knowing Jehovah's plans for Earth will take place.
