“ I worked with Austin for many years at AIG. I was so impressed with his dedication to his clients. First, everyone in Springfield knew him and most of them were also clients. Then, no matter how bad he felt, he continued to support his clients. He was such a sweet and awesome person. I so enjoyed listening to his stories and he never met a stranger. I think it was part of the salesman in him and then he was just that type of person. I will miss him terribly and all the family will be in my prayers for peace and knowing he lived a full and adventurous life and is now in Heaven with his family and friends that have gone before him.
