“ What to say? Papa (we called him granddaddy) was just precious. He loved runny eggs, soap operas, good cooking, camping in his younger years at Del Hollow. He didn't know the difference between McDonalds and Golden Arch so we tried to trick him into eating at McD's. He loved his gardens and was great at growing them. Our nick name for him was UHAUL. The smell of pipe tobacco still reminds me of him and I love it. The sound of him tapping the pipe on the ashtray I'll never forget. I loved when he drove the big conversion van and me and the cousins would try "not" to roll off when he stopped, so then he would try to make us roll off the chairs/couch in the back and thought it was funny. He had a kind heart and loved his family. He will be missed!!
