“ I remember the time, the four of us went camping at Lake Malone. The big Thunderstorm came up and we had very little cover. We all got soaked. Those are the times I will remember..Our kids grew up playing together, and I have a picture of the four of them setting on our couch. Its time for you to be with God now. He wanted you home early for some reason. Even tho Shelia and I are not together any more, both of us still have fond memories. I pray that God comforts your family, You will be missed by all. BINK
