“ Ben was one of my favorite students at Welch. A diligent worker, a brilliant mind, and a caring young man. And a writer. We had that in common and bonded through it. I am thankful for his walking through my life. God bless all of his family. Gene and I treasured our time with Betty and Lloyd in Cote d'Ivoire. Genevieve Waddell. Nashville, TN

“ I remember one night at Bible College I awoke to hear Ben talking in his sleep. I always heard that if you talk to someone while they are sleeping they will tell you the truth about anything. So as I began to converse with him while he was sleeping I ended up asking about which girl at college did he like. Then there was silence. Then he said, "I'm awake now Kris." LOL! I'll never forget that.

My deepest condolences, sympathies and prayers to the family. Our loss is heavens gain. The world is a bit dimmer with his light no longer among us.
