Betty was a '60 SHS classmate, neighbor and friend of mine. She was always such a sweet, kind and soft spoken lady who was your pleasure to spend time with. Betty was all about family; a loving and caring wife to Vester and mother to Eddie and Tina. I know what a difficult and sad time this is for you so just know that I will be keeping you all in my prayers. May God bless you during this time of sorrow.

“ Decades ago, I loved going to Springfield to see family. One of many special memories I have is staying with Aunt Rachel and her family. I loved those cousins(and all my cousins) and remember how much fun they were. Betty Rae was always one of my pretty older cousins that was so nice and would put up with me. Prayers to her family for this loss.

“ Miss Betty will be greatly missed. She was such a sweet, kind lady and I know her kids adored her. I have missed seeing her out and about around town. We used to have such good chats, usually about Edmund. Ya'll know what I mean. Prayers for comfort and healing for her family. ❤️
