“ My deepest sympathies & prayers go to Beulah's family. I have wonderful memories of Beulah from when I was growing up. I remember when she and Pete came to Illinois to visit. And, then when we (Bob Traylor and Mary Lou & family) moved to Adams, going and visiting with her and eating supper with her. And how she was always sitting at the window and looking out!! She was a sweetheart! She certainly will be having fun with Aunt Lottie and Beatrice now! The three of them together just make me smile!! God Bless you all!
