

Beverly Kay Potts

December 8, 1958 - December 24, 2025

Beverly Kay Potts (Vaughn), age 67, passed away peacefully at home, surrounded by her loving family, on December 24, 2025.

Born in Wrigley, Tennessee, Beverly later made her home in White House, Tennessee, where she devoted her life to family, friendship, and caring for others. She was a devoted wife to the love of her life, Gary Potts, with whom she shared a lifetime of love, laughter, and unwavering devotion.

Beverly was a loving mother and grandmother whose greatest joy came from her children and grandchildren. She is survived by her husband, Gary Potts; her sons, Shannon Potts (Lori) and Jeffrey Potts; her daughter, Terrah McCann; her four cherished grandchildren, Madysen Potts, Mia Potts, Aidan Cottar, and Lincoln McCann; and extended family members, including Mickey and Sharon Thompson (Potts), as well as many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her father, Grover Vaughn; her mother, Olive Thomasson (Estes); her brother, Kevin Huffaker; and her sister, Ardith Mathis. A dedicated nurse for 29 years, Beverly cared deeply for her patients and was known for her compassion, kindness, and unwavering support.

She will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered.

On February 7, family and friends are invited to gather from 12:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Billy S. Hobbs Building, The Donald Eden Community Room 105D College Street in White House, Tennessee 37188, to celebrate Beverly's life.

A brief reading will be shared at 12:30 p.m. by our beloved cousin, Rev. Michael Wayne Thomasson. Following the reading, we will spend time together enjoying food, fellowship, and remembering the many moments that made her so special to us. In keeping with her wishes, we kindly ask that guests refrain from wearing black, as she would have wanted this to be a joyful celebration filled with love and remembrance rather than sorrow.
