

Bill Elliston

March 26, 1974 - April 7, 2018

William Jack Elliston, known to most as “Bill”, age 44, of Ashland City, Tennessee, died Saturday, April 7, 2018 at Centennial in Ashland City. Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o’clock pm on Wednesday, April 11, 2018 in the chapel of Austin & Bell Funeral Home in Pleasant View with Pastor Chris Moore officiating.

His remains will be cremated following the funeral service.

The family will receive friends on Wednesday beginning at 11:00am until the hour of service.

Bill was born on March 26, 1974, in Colby, Kansas. He was a Registered Nurse at Metro General Hospital in Nashville. He attended LifePoint Church in Clarksville. Bill liked antique cars, playing the guitar, hunting, and was well-known to make and drink very strong coffee! He was a very dedicated nurse-always kind to his patients and co-workers, and always calmly prepared for any situation that might arise in the hospital. The most important part of Bill’s life was the love for his family, and he was so proud of his son.

Loving survivors include his wife, Nicki Elliston; son, Xander Elliston of Ashland City; parents, David and Vicky Elliston of Ashland City; mother of his son, Cheryl Elliston of Ashland City; parents-in-law, Jerry and Joy Robertson of Charlotte, Tennessee; brother-in-law, Nathan (Annie) Robertson of Nolensville; and nieces, Lacie & Katy Robertson of Nolensville.

If so desired, memorial contributions may be made to The Wounded Warrior Project, P.O. Box 758517, Topeka, KS 66675-8517.

AUSTIN & BELL FUNERAL HOME in Pleasant View is in charge of these arrangements. 6316 Highway 41A, Pleasant View, Tennessee 37146 (615) 746-4433 www.austinandbell.com

“ David, Vicki and Family,

So very sorry for your loss and hoping the many prayers and kind thoughts you are receiving from all will lessen the burden and move you toward God's peace.

I remember when Bill was born and my delight at the name you gave him, "Billy Jack". So cool.

Love,

“ I struggle to pick just one memory...I remember leaving high school on Friday's or any day really with the tops off our cars just happy to be free and behind the wheels of our cars. Endless New Year's eve gatherings filled with love and friendship every time. All the love and friendship always Bill.

“ Bill was one of my favorite ICU nurses here at NGH. He always greeted me with a smile and often helped me without me having to ask. I always knew my patients were in good hands when Bill was caring for them. He was a wonderful, thorough, intelligent and caring person and it showed through his work as a nurse. I will miss his smiling face in the ICU. He will be gravely missed at NGH. Sending my thoughts and prayers to the Elliston family.

“ The Masem family met "Billy Bluegrass" many years ago at the Walnut Valley Bluegrass Festival in Winfield Ks. He welcomed us in to his camp as strangers..helping us get our our old Shasta "tamper" all settled in. It was a running commentary through the years of bluegrass camping that if anyone needed anything for camp to "Ask Bill, he'll have it!"
We will miss him and his infectious smile and kindness greatly and we will find a way to honor him in Bluegrass to come.

I always enjoyed his smile and sarcasm when I would see him in the ICU. Plus he used to work in the cath lab where I work now. His sense of humor was always on point. He will be missed very much. Michelle, RN

My heart hurts and there is a emptiness in the Pitt of my stomach knowing that tthis world has lost such a beautiful person who could teach, encourage and be a great listener. I am going to need help wrapping my mind around the reality that he is gone, but I know he is in a better place. God only uses the best in his army!!!!

Bill my hurting heart can not say much except so soon and sudden. This is by far the hardest goodbye. I will miss YOUR kindness, easy to be around gentle spirit and of course morning and afternoon strong coffee just like half Ethiopian you were. You were indeed a friend of good character and such a great colleague. My heart goes out to your family. May they find comfort in Christ Lord.
