“ Uncle Bill was always so sweet and loved me so much. I think he loved everybody a ton. He definitely was the mayor of Brighton Gardens and it was pretty amazing that he came up with the idea to have my dad, his brother, Tom, come join him there. He was always a comforting force whenever I came to visit Dad. When I was a kid, I always loved to visit family in Tennessee. Uncle Bill always told stories about previous generations and his sons took that quality on and I was always fascinated to hear about these relatives who came before me. We had a great adventure at the Teasley house many years ago. Uncle Bill did a good job of keeping up with the newer generations as well. I hope someone will carry on his family tree computer program. Uncle Bill will always have a special place in my heart. I love him dearly.
