“ My granddaddy was and still is the greatest man ever. He was always there for his children grandchildren and great grandchildren. He taught us so many lessons about life at a young age and at the time we didn't know but as adults I couldn't have asked for a better teacher. I remember thinkin as a kid why is granddaddy being so mean and now I'm appreciative of everything he did and/or said to us growing up. Every single one of us kids grandkids great grandkids all inherited traits from this wonderful man but the main trait we all got is his stubbornness and bull headedness. I will proudly carry that trait on forever. I love you granddaddy love maggot
