“ Jeremy, My wife and I want you to know how sorry we are at the loss of Brandon. You guys have sure had a rough life at the loss of both your parents at such a young age. I miss you dad and my brother Bobby like he was just here a few days ago. I caught myself for a long time wanting to call him or go by his house until finally one day it hit me that he was gone for good. I know how it is to lose your parents and a sibling and let me tell you it is not easy but with time you will remember the good times that you did have with him when he was alive. Please know that you are in our prayers and know that Brandon is home with your mom and dad and they are all in a better place than we are and we will see them all one day soon.

Love,
Jeffrey L. & Denise E. Blackwell

“ Brandon you were a wonderful guy. It is hard to think that a young ambitious man can slip out of the hands of loved ones. You made a beautiful son with the love of your life. Rest in Peace and never be forgotten.
