Brion was born September 3, 1952 in California to the late Ernest Jennings (Tennessee Ernie) and Betty Jean Heminger Ford. He was a life long entertainer and will always be remembered for his love of music and people. Special poem The Broken Chain: We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly. In death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you. You did not go alone, for part of us went with you the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories. Your love is still our guide. And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, the Chain will link again. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Sumner Hospice 510 E. Main St. Gallatin,Tn. 37066.Austin & Bell Funeral Home,White House. 615 672 5000.

“ Brion was my 1st boyfriend in elementary school, his mom gave him money to buy Valentines for his whole class and he spent it all on 1 for me. His mother and mine thought it was so cute. I was thrilled, then my family moved, 💔, I still think about that he was my 1st boyfriend. Sorry to hear of his passing. 🙏 for him and his family.

“ I think it was about 1984 when we had taken my husband's daughter, Vickie, to get some modeling photos done out on music row. Brion just happened to walk into the studio and after introducing himself to us & watching the shoot for a few minutes he just stepped right in & began to pose with my stepdaughter. She was a new model & he promptly showed her a few professional modeling moves. He was so kind and full of smiles. I will never forget his kindness.
