“ Candice I remember the day your Mom Sharon and your Dad Scottie brought you out to say hello to your family we waited for you cause I was an Aunt you had a head full of black hair beautiful then little did I know we wasn't going to get the happiest part of your life until you turned 18 when you where able to come see your real Dad, Grandmother Aunts, Uncles. I was never so proud to see you and how beautiful you had become as a lady..my heart misses you dearly I always thought you would never find your way truly home but as hard headed as you where you did I know it wasn't easy but you let us in little by little after the truth came out for all the years We had lost with you and through all the births the love I had for you I wish I could have told you before you left me but I was alittle to late. But I know we talk everyday I want you to ALWAYS know baby I love you come call on me every now and again cause ill want to talk and now you will have to listen. I went to your graveside the other day it doesn't seem sorrel your gone. Spread your wing darling and fly. Don't give the big fellow up their a hard time .hear me. Happy belated Mothers day darling I Miss You. Love your Aunt Renee' ”

“ Dear family of Candice, I am sorry for the tragic loss of your young daughter. At very sad times like this, grieving ones need comfort. and the Bible is the best place to find it.

The Bible holds out a wonderful hope for our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death.

A wonderful future promise is found at Revelation 21:3,4 where it states that, pain and death will be no more. The former things will have passed away.

I hope as you read these texts in your Bible, they will be of comfort to you. There is much Bible-based comfort to be found on the website www.jw.org

Sincerely Dianne Mullins

“ James, Brooklynn, Brayden and Kenzie, we are so very sorry for the loss of your wife and mommy. Its so hard to understand the reason behind these types of horrible tragedies especially when it is someone you love. I have lots of questions for Jesus when I get to heaven but for now my mind has a peace when I think that Jesus just needed her more than we did. She is in a much better place than this earth and you will all be a family again when we get there! Until then I pray that God provide a peace to you that can only come from him! We love you guys and we will be here anytime you need us!
