“ *I knew Carlton when we were in grade school at Cedar Hill. He was well liked and was a quiet easy going boy. I have only seen him a few times in recent years. But wanted you to know that he is remembered after all these years.
My sympathy to the entire family. Mary Sue*

“ I would like to express heartfelt sympathy to all the family members. Carlton was a good friend to all and a mighty man for God in the Earth. He will be truly missed. He ran the race, He fought a good fight, and He finished his course. Amen. We will look forward to seeing him again in Heaven. He has a lot of rewards waiting for the many lives he touched for Jesus.
