An only child for many years, because I left home for college and to take jobs that required me to be a distance. But we phoned each other constantly, share our most personal thoughts and experiences. We were each others maids/matrons of honor at our weddings. We argued over politics like most families. We shared holidays, took long walks when possible together. I will miss these times of sharing and caring.

“ I hadn't seen Carolyn in a few years, but found her on Facebook one year right around her birthday. She was surprised I remembered, but how could I forget one of my best friends birthday day. My Mother used to say that she and I started talking 4th grade and never stopped. Which was pretty accurate, we spent many hours on the phone, sleepless sleepovers, and a lot of laughter. The one thing I will always remember is that beautiful smile and kind heart! Love you and miss you ole' friend! Prayers for Jerry and you're beautiful family!
