“ My walk on Ervin Pace Rd won't ever be the same. I will always miss the sound of a tractor or truck coming by and not knowing what he would do - blow the horn, holler out at me, act like he was throwing out trash, or stop to talk to me when he had time. If we needed help with anything, he was just a phone call away. Charles will surely be missed by the Eley family.

“ I was part of mowing Mallorys Cementery for 26 years first my mom and I mowed it then my wife Rose and one son Jon he would stop by sometimes to say hi and say how nice it always looked.He could go by 10 times a day and would always throw up his hand and have a big smile.Had lost touch with him for a while then my mom passed away last April and my wife called him to see if he could be a pallbearer and he didn't hesitate.I knew my mom would be happy he was one of her pallbearers.He was a good man and will be missed.RIP Charles!!!

“ He was such a nice man. I had called him and asked if he could be a pall bearer for my Mother In Law when she passed and he didn't even hesitate, but that's just the kind of guy he was, always there. He will be missed by many.

“ Charlie always reminded me of my own Uncle Charles (Head), and in my eyes, to be a man like that is a wonderful thing! If you could walk away from an encounter with him and you didn't have a smile on your face, I would bet you, that was your own fault! Because he was always smiling, so easy to talk to, and had a way of making you feel special. Living in this small town, I don't recall anyone saying anything ill of him, and isn't that a compliment in itself! And if I ever would've heard anything, I would have thought they were lying. What a way to live life, that when your name was mentioned, it was always in a positive light! I know my Daddy (Wesley Attebery) thought a lot of him, along with our entire family. Mrs. Sandra, Linda, and Brenda, I know at first those memories in your heart will bring a tear to your eye, but I also know that one day they will bring smiles again, even if a tear drop trickles down. I have a feeling Charlie will put a smile on your faces until you meet him again, because he was just that cool! We love you guys! -Lindsey Carney
