“ I remember the first time I brought both Shalyn and Noah to Papa and Nana's house, the first thing he did was play the guitar to them. He was is and always will be proud of his grandbabies... Chuck was the best grandfather to all his grandbabies... there never can be a bad word said about this man. He loved and respected his family and his relationship with God was his strength. I love u Chuck and I will forever miss you and I promise to always remind my kids of the values you instilled in them. You were a father to me for many years... your memories will forever be with us... I will always laugh when I think of Noah's Barney birthday party and for those who attended know what I mean, can't help but smile and cry as I share memories with my beautiful daughter, Shalyn... and my son Noah...
