“ So many memories of this man! Known first as "Coach Davis" - my junior high science teacher, then as assistant football coach for WHHS - he was always such an encourager. Often requested to sing at someone's wedding, I would help him rehearse in the high school cafeteria, where the upright piano was kept - me, playing and him, singing (he really didn't need me, as he had perfect pitch, even years later as church song leader). Several years later, when my family became members of the White House Church of Christ, Coach Davis remembered me and we would reminisce about White House in the 70s - he was proud of the fact that he still had White House's first P.O.Box!

To Diane, Nikki, and the rest of the family - You already know how much this wonderful man is going to be missed by so many. Please know that you are in my thoughts and my prayers.

“ Nearly every Wednesday, Mr. Davis, Mrs. Davis, and two of their friends would sit in my server section at the White House Cracker Barrel. I always enjoyed seeing him, and I was happy to call him one of my Wednesday regulars. He was a kind man and I wish the best for his family.

“ I am going to miss my Uncle Chuck so much. He was a strong, brave and beautiful man inside and out. One of the many people in my family to always make sure I felt heard and seen. It hurts me that I didn't get to spend more time with him, but I know he is at peace and at Home with his brother, my Uncle Butch. I will make sure to keep his memory alive.

Coach Davis and I worked at the University Library together in college for three years. He and Diane were married then and so were Hugh and I. I got a letter from Dr. Hobbs my senior year in college. He was wanting a woman to teach PE and Health and to help coach girls' basketball. I accepted the position and we moved to White House after I graduated. A few days after school started my first year of teaching, Dr. Hobbs dropped by my classroom to introduce a new teacher. That new teacher was my Chuck Davis. We were so excited to see a familiar face. We spent 17 years teaching together at White House High School. I took another job in Hendersonville after that but did occasionally see Chuck. I will always have fond memories of him, Diane and Nikki. He loved the Lord so I will see him at the grand Union.
