“ My condolences to all of Mike’s family. Mike was my first supervisor at the Inspection Service in Detroit and I will always remember him for his sense of humor and quick thinking. He was well liked and always good to work with.

“ I'll always remember Mike's laid back style from working together in the 1980's in Indianapolis. That, and those cigars he often had close at hand. He often offered advice on cases, and life with his slow southern drawl. My condolences to Mikes family and friends, I was so sorry to hear of his passing. Positive thoughts and prayers for healing, to all of you from Washington state.
