“Reed and I will miss you Richard. So many memories of our good times at the dances and dance classes. One incident comes to mind at Long Hollow of when we were dancing the sway and you slipped and fell at my feet. That was a source of humor from that day forward and hope to one day dance again at the feet of Jesus with you. The dances will not be the same without you, nor will the get-togethers at Waffle House afterward have as much fun without you there to tease all the waitresses. Rest well my friend.
