“ I have so many wonderful memories with Chenia. From watching football, dressing fancy for Churchill Downs, to our shared love of animals she was in a word fun. My favorite memories are of us laughing together and arguing over how to make the best hash brown casserole in her kitchen. She is missed. Sending all my love to her family and friends.

“ I first met Chelenia when Brad started work at the company I was also employed. We became friends overtime I got to know a beautiful soul. She was smart funny and you could see the love she had for her boys and family. She spoke of them with affection often. They were the center of her world. I cannot imagine the sorrow her loss has brought to them. She was a light to those who knew her. Her presence will be missed. Brad, Alex and Dylan. I know there is no comfort to be spoken to you right now. I pray you find solace in those around you and in the memory of an incredible person you loved.
