“ I worked with Chris at Brook & Whittle printing company. When I heard the news of his passing, it broke my heart. He was such a nice young gentleman. I would always say good morning to him and asked him how he was doing. He showed me pictures of his daughter. He sure did love her. He reminded me a lot of my boys. I even told him that and he laughed. One day I came in to work and I could tell he was a little down. I said honey are you okay (I call everyone honey lol) He said he was having some issues. I gave him a hug and told him Mrs Tina loves you. And he smiled and said he loved me too. And he thanked me for the hug and for being a friend. I told him he was welcome and I was always around if he needed to talk or even just a hug because I'm a hugger. Lol And then he laughed again. I hope this story brings a smile to his family. Chris was such a nice and respectful person. Sending prayers and hugs to his family and friends. I miss you my friend. I will never forget you Mrs. Tina

“ Chris was part of our family life since age 14. He filled our home with laughter. Along with my boys he did crazy stunts that took my breath away, which made them laugh harder! He has always meant the world to me. Ms Linda will truly miss you sweetheart. My thoughts and prayers to everyone who loved him.
