“ When I first moved to Tennessee from Florida, I was not very good at finding my way around. Chris always told me that he could get me anywhere I needed to go if he knew the name of the street because of his many years driving a truck. I got lost in Nashville a few times and once in Kentucky on my way to Ohio. I was able to call him and he was able to get me back on way. And all he needed was the street name. He was always there to help where ever or how ever he could. He will be missed.

“ Chris was a good friend who my husband will miss greatly. Chris and Moochie worked together at the City of Springfield for the last 7 years. They were joking around as usual last Friday at the end of the day and talking about the weekend and their plans. Chris has been to our house many times and he always had a smile on his face and was just fun to be around. Chris, you are loved and will be missed by many! Moochie & Cindy Knight
