“ I attended high school with Chris. We had two Chris Williams in our class and so he became "Rex" or "Big Chris" to us. He was a joy to be around, smart, funny, a beautiful singing voice. We sang together in a talent show and did an Oak Ridge Boys Tribute. That was a lot of fun!! I will always remember our disco classes that his mom taught way back in the 80s when disco was cool. Rest easy, my friend. We will miss you. Cheryl Ottinger Lang

“ Like the rest of the world, Kay and I are heartbroken. Our connections with Chris stretch back generations. He and I are cousins through the Wilson family while Kay kinship comes through the Williams clan. My dad once dated Chris’s grandmother Iota (much to my mom’s displeasure!) I remember his parents’ wedding, his birth, and then his wonderful presence as a student in my freshman English class at CCHS. So smart, so talented, so wonderful to have around. The rest of us would do well to live as happy and as full a life as Chris. The world is a brighter, happier place because of his time with us. Until we meet again!
