“ I have to many memories to it's hard to determine which one to post. I could not have asked for a better brother. You made sure I was safe when growing up and when times got hard you never failed to assure me things would be alright. I'm thankful you are no longer battling with this life. I get a sense of comfort to know your are with God and all the family and friends you have lost over the years. Even though you are physical not here I know you are with me. I love you. Till we meet again.
