“ Where do I even start? The Michael family loved and supported my sweet baby Cassius and myself until I was able to. I'm incredibly blessed and grateful that God united me with this particular family. Chris showed me how an honest man of Christ loves, cares for and supports family. The Michael family is a huge part of my journey in Recovery. Chris and his family made me feel at home in Nashville and brought me to an amazing church family. Words cannot express how grateful I am. Chris will forever hold a place in my heart. He is in the loving arms of our father and has made it to his glorious forever home.

“ All the times I prayed (along with so many other folks), for Chris to be completely healed here on earth, I knew that this might not be in God's plan, but I prayed those prayers anyway believing & knowing He could

My heart is grieving because Ashley & their Children are without Chris now

I will continue to lift all of you to Jesus often

I know God is bringing comfort & will continue to in the days, weeks & months ahead

I am truly grateful for the testimony Chris had & his life & witness will live on throughout eternity

Love Always,

Becky

“ Our hearts hurt for Chris' family. We have so many wonderful memories of Chris and our boys as they played soccer. Chris was talented and worked hard and clearly enjoyed playing and the closeness of his team mates and coaches. He was such a wonderful neighbor to Mrs. Lemonds even though he did scare her when climbing on the porch roof to relax. He was easy to love and returned our love with respect and caring. He will be missed. Our love to his family.

“ Chis was a devoted Father, Husband, Brother, Cousin, Co-Worker and Christian Man. He will be truly missed, leaving a void in so many lives that he impacted over the years. I have so many great memories that will last a life time growing up with Chris, as he lived just down the street in Paris. I was fortunate to be able to spend some time with Chris just a few days prior to his passing. He was always a joy to be around with his candid laughter, joking personality and larger than life smile. Chris will be truly missed but never forgotten. Love you cuz...
