“ My mother is in heaven; so dear Lord Jesus teach me more of you while I am here. I plan to follow, Jesus and ask him to lead me on the straight and narrow path. We went to church all on Sunday and most of the time we was late. This was because Daddy, Skippy would put off till the last to get ready. Sometimes we would help by being a Brewer stubborn. Clara grew up during the depression and children had to work to make ends meet. Momma would tell me stories of her love of her Grandfather and Grandmother. One time it was during the winter and she walked over to Grandpa's house 🏠 without shoes. There was snow on the ground .He got in the truck and went to buy Clara new shoes. She has beautiful Red ❤️ hair and she was their favorite. There was 10 of them grandkids so mother would stay at other people homes for room and board. She would cook, clean, watch kids and help them with homework. So after all that then she would do her homework and things she liked. My sweet mother just wanted a better life for her family and I feel that she gave me the love of Jesus! We lived in Mill Dale , Tn. Daddy said , "That we had store, West Grocery, The Moore's Lumber and Babers funeral home what more could you want. We could eat, build a home and put us in the ground after we died. My life with my family was on the farm and it was great for me. Yes, sometimes I thought how dumb my parents was but now I know it was me that was dumb. I love you forever , mother and I will be with all the family of God one day. See you soon , love your daughter, Patricia Elaine Brewer Davenport Kurtsinger Ingram. If anyone reads this ask yourself ,do you have Jesus in your ❤️ heart and ask him in there , because it's Hell without him. John 3:16
