“ Hello Jones family members,
I am sorry for your loss. Your Dad, and Peggy’s loving husband, was my first cousin. Since I have not lived in Tennessee since I was 26, and I am 68 now, it has been some time ago that I was with you.
I do remember some family reunions, one at a park, one at Sonny’s home and a few at my parent’s home. What I recall from those times was Clarence and family ALWAYS being there. I can picture Clarence smiling and laughing, and being close to Peggy whom I suspect he “courted” for 60 years. He was proud of his family and really into Peggy.

I was 8 years old when I attended Clarence’s wedding to Peggy. I remember the church and Peggy being a glowing and beautiful bride. They both took the time to talk with me on their wedding day and I felt very grown up and included. I hope somewhere carefully packed away is Peggy’s wedding dress as it was truly beautiful.

*“Sister”, Clarence’s mother, was my aunt and she helped raise me because she was our babysitter for several years. Sister frequently spoke about her children and would tell me what they were doing.
She was very proud of Clarence, and the rest of the family.*

Although I will not be able to attend the services, please know that you all will be in my prayers. Please know also that I would have liked to be there and do hope sometime we can have a reunion for the family when it is safe to be in large groups. I wonder how big the family is now??? It is unlikely you all will come to California, but I do still return to Nashville from time to time and Elaine, Marcia and Kent will know those times.

Remember the joy and laughter you all have shared and know that you will be together again. I wish you all richest blessings.
