“ Chip was a very good friend to me over 40 years ago. This helped me to get through a hard family time. He and his friends were fun to be around, always playing music and just hanging around Shade Tree. They played at Bo's Barn, the lounge at the golf course just over the Old Hickory Bridge, and somewhere in Thompson's Station, to name a few. Even though I haven't seen him in years, I will always remember his quiet ways and talent. He will be missed.
