“ Clyde was one of the breakfast group at Hardee’s in Springfield and I haven’t seen him in some years since the pandemic. He certainly did not show his age! He gave me some great advice about life, investing and finance and was a kind and friendly man. He knew a lot about history of Greenbrier and was a proud of his home town. So Sorry to hear of his passing.

“ My heart goes out to Mr. Bedwell’s precious wife, Marjorie, his family and all who knew him.
Such a kind, sweet man who left this life to be with Jesus in his heavenly home as promised.
He was always pleasant to talk to and was a true example of a devoted Christian.
Prayers for comfort and peace to his family as only God can provide.
