“ It has been nearly three years since Daniel's passing. It is still just as difficult today as it was three years ago, we have just learned to cope. Daniel left behind a lot of people who loved him dearly. My oldest daughter, Emma, has learned a lot about her uncle as she was very young when he passed. We talk about him often and let her know he is always there watching over her and protecting her. It definitely gives my husband and I a sense of peace to know someone so dear and special is watching over and protecting our three girls!

“ Susan, Alan, & Families: On behalf of my family, I would like to extend our deepest sympathy in the loss of your son / nephew. Know that you all are in our thoughts and prayers. May God give you strength, peace, and comfort to get through this sad time. May the wonderful memories you shared with him bring joy to your lives in some special way. Remember God is always with you, whenever you need Him. If there's anything we can do, please let us know. Sherri, Jeff Biggs, and Karen (Biggs) & Mike Frazier and family.

“ The pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such times, we need to go to God's Word for comfort. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 tells us The God of all comfort, comforts us in all our tribulation.
