Where do I even start?

Camping, busting into the bedroom singing "wake uuuuuup", the seatbelt song (which I still sing to Juniper), being elves to his Santa, Abby sleeping on his chest when she was a tiny thing, the time we stayed up too late and swore we heard someone outside so we went running into his bedroom and he came up swinging, him honking the horn at the rental car going through the tunnel on the way to North Carolina and saying "Was that a gopher fart?"

Thank you for letting me share your dad for so many years, Hopie.

So so sorry, friend!! 💔 both of your parents were such an integral part of my childhood, I feel like! Connie Kirschbaum-Noble calling me a dinker in softball because I always hit the ball just behind second base, which confused the players because no one knew who was supposed to get it 🤔 and helping us all out in band so much and really just being such a wonderful, positive presence in general! And your sweet dad drove us to our high school games sometimes and was so supportive even though we both sat the bench most of the time 🤔 a lot of my favorite memories growing up include you and your family!! 😊 I'm sending you guys all of the love I can right now!! ❤️ I'm so so so so sorry for your loss ❤️

My deepest sympathies to Ray's entire family and his many friends. I knew Ray for over 25 years. Maybe thirty. He was always a happy person! We had a core group of four couples known to us as The Big Chill crew. We went to different TN state parks each spring and rented a four bedroom cabin for the weekend. Fun, music, camaraderie and good food was always a memorable annual tradition. Ray traveled to my son's house one year and played Santa Claus for my two grand daughters. My, were they surprised! Many other great times were also had such as Halloween and other frequent get togethers and parties. I'm proud to have had such a good friend. Ray will be missed by everyone that knew him.

I had the pleasure of spending a weekend with my uncle Ray and aunt Connie every year around Christmas through my whole childhood. We've had countless yummy breakfasts and many many hours spent in his trophy shop, and even in the shop room when he moved it to the house, making last minute Christmas gifts for my whole family. I got to experience the joy of Santa through him, and became his little elf when I got a bit older. I got to go with them to deliver gifts to several children every year. These are memories I will always appreciate and carry with me for the rest of my life! Thank you for everything you've done for us! Until we see you again

Connie Kirschbaum-Noble - January 28 at 08:59 PM

“ Ray was such a sweet, kind and caring soul. He did all of our trophies for our GWRRA picnics. He was so passionate and cared so much about the quality of his work, he was super patient too as I was always on a last min change up. He also did other items for all my events. Ray is the only one I trusted for the quality of work and timeless matter of completion. I am so very sorry for your loss and praying for everyone near and dear to him. He will truly be missed.

“ Ray and I went to the same mutual friend at the same time to get each other's phone numbers (before cell phones) lol. I found out he loved flowers and I brought him a bouquet for our fist date and we went to Cades Cove. By the way he brought me flowers as well. And rest is our history of 35 years. ❤️

Constance Kirschbaum - January 27 at 10:52 PM

I didn't get to know him when he was younger but I had the absolute honor of caring for him and let me tell you never a dull moment! Lots of laughs shared! I could definitely tell he was a funny guy and he will be greatly missed!

Stephanie Hernandez - January 28 at 06:53 AM

Ray as in ray of sunshine...our daughters brought us together through sports...your family became family. I had the honor to sit by you and laugh scoring for opposite teams. I had the honor to meet your family at your home and feel the welcomeness of laughs and love. I have the honor to continue to share/see updates of life from Connie and Hope. I'm so grateful for your love, kindness and friendship over the years. Rest in peace Ray, keep on smiling and watching over your girls.~ Carmen

One more memory, my kids loved to go and see him. They would let him scroll thru TikTok and he would crack up. He always enjoyed the kids coming when they could!
