“ I remember him , "the sailor",He missed Mom ,Dad and "Us" .
One time he sat eyes closed,I said , "Do you ever really rest?"He laughed.I knew he was soaking up all the love,and still going over his next moves to help keep our country safe.
The Kenny Chesney ,song ,the Soul Of A Sailor,describes Dayved.
* You did your job to profection ,my brother .Love and miss you ,Sis

“ I will always remember the night we went to the movie Singing in the Rain with Dayved and Gwen. And when we came out side the theater it was raining and he grab me and danced me thru the rain and started sing like Gene Kelly. We splashed through the puddles like in the movie. I was wet but laughing my head off.
