“ So sad to hear of Debbie's passing. I was a friend of of Deb and Mike back in our WKU days. I will always remember Debbie as a sweet, loving girl with a kind word for everyone. I knew her to be a positive influence on everyone around her... especially on Mike. It's easy to understand why Mike fell for her so hard.

R.I.P. Debbie. You will always be missed.

“ When I was a little girl I remember calling Debbie by her first and last name. She was my sister's (Anita Marshall) best friend and known to me as 'DebbieAllen'. As a matter of fact, I still think of her as DebbieAllen Isbill...

May you rest in loving peace DebbieAllen.

“ Debbie and I were talking on the phone one day. She looked at the clock and said, “do you realize we have been on the phone for almost three hours?” I couldn’t believe it. Debbie was so easy to talk with.....a true friend. Debbie was always soft spoken and kind, putting God first, her family, and then her friends. I will miss you, Debbie, and I will see you again one day. Prayers for your family.

Debbie and I were room mates in the dorm at WKU for several years. She is one of the sweetest and kindest people I've ever known. We were always so close. I got to visit with her and Mike back in October a little over a year ago. We hadn't seen each other in many years but it was like all those years hadn't passed when we saw each other again. Rest in peace Debbie, and comfort and prayers for Mike, Pat, Ron, Anita and all those that love you so much. From your old friend Lynette.

“ I like to say Debbie saved my life by getting me into Middleton Baptist Church. Not only that, but being included in her and Mike's family has meant more than anyone could know. What a wonderful friend.
