“ I would like to share my deepest and most sincere condolences to Mr. Spain and his family. While I did not know Mrs. Spain personally, I am keenly aware of the joy and love she brought to her husband of nearly 60 years, family and friends especially her beloved granddaughter Brianna who I know has the greatest love and fondest memories of her grandmother and will be dearly missed. While her loss brings with it heavy hearts and Strong emotions it has also been a time of joyous memories for a wonderful mother, wife and grandmother. While she will be missed by all one can take solace knowing that she will forever rest peacefully and shine down upon us with her loving heart and caring ways. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Kenneth. I am thinking of you and your family at this difficult time. I hope that you find comfort in the memories of all the good times spent with her. We are never ready to give up those we love so deeply. Knowing there is a better life hereafter gives comfort when nothing else can and it is the one thing we embrace for comfort.

Sincerely,
Mavis

“ Uncle Kenneth, Ricky, Sherri, Paula, and Diane, we love you and are so sorry for this heartbreak you are experiencing. Please know prayers are being lifted for you. May God surround you with everything you need right now and strengthen you. I always enjoyed talking with Aunt Delores and loved her great smile. Know that you are loved and will be prayed over now and in the coming days. Unfortunately, due to some health concerns and other obligations, we won't be able to attend. Please know, however, we are there in spirit. Love, Belinda, for Mickey, Terry, and Tina, too. ❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ As you get older and lose touch with those you knew in your youth it is nice to rekindle those friendships later in life. Me and Diane were friends in school and later we both moved away and lost touch. I started talking to her parents when they would come through the local kroger and shop. I started a new friendship with them. I enjoyed talking to your mom she was lovely and always smiling. I will continue hopefully to enjoy talks with your dad he has become one of my buddies. God bless all of you in your time of grief and I pray for some form of comfort for you.
