“ Hello family. I know I've never met some of you who will read this but to Dennis everyone is family.... so too are you for me on this day of deep grief, joy, and remembrance of the delightful soul that is Dennis Weaver.

I became an official part of Dennis and Janie's family when we were all still teenagers. I remember the strong, dapper Marine coming home from boot camp like it was yesterday. I remember the sweet bride he brought home who would become my lifelong sister and friend. I remember the birth of each one of their precious children. I remember sharing hundreds of family celebrations and summers filled with games, fun, wit, and lotsa food and kids running around! These are some of my most treasured memories of Dennis and his family.

I remember the hard and scary times too.... His time in Vietnam and their time in Iran, the kids' many fevers and ear surgeries along with the broken bones and heart. The fun times are great, but the trials help us all understand the importance of families selflessly showing their love for one another. Dennis did this without reservation or hesitation.

We always knew we could count on Dennis for advice (sometimes whether we wanted it or not), an eager ear to hear what's happening in your life, a sincere "Howya doin'?" and "Come on out and see us now!" .....I'll miss those greetings, but will hold them close in bittersweet memory because the light that is Dennis will never go out. It will shine in our hearts forever.

I learned a lot from Dennis, but the most important lesson I take from Dennis's earthly time with us is his example to selflessly and continuously show your love of family through your actions and words. In this spirit I take this moment to wrap Janie, Denny, KT, and Windi in the sweet comfort of sustaining love that is His gift to us all. Peace be with you all.

*I love you,
Paula Weaver*

“ When I first met Dennis at his Firestone Store in 1982 to have some tires placed on my auto I knew I had another friend. He talked me into joining a civic club of which I am still a member-AMBUCS. We had several conversations over time and when we discovered that we had also served in the Marine Corp that really made a friendship. So I know where he is now - proudly serving with many other Marines guarding the Gates-Brad Hanley.
