“ I made this video for you little princess. I can't believe your gone. I miss you like crazy already I only got to see you maybe 3 times but in those times I grew a big heart for you and your family. I I will always be thinking about you til the day I go. you were way too young I cried for days after finding out that you were no longer going to be coming around me anymore. You always had a smile and very talkative I can just remember hearing you sweat little voice destiny you will always be in my heart I love you little princess rest easy and watch over us as our guardian angel

“ It’s unbelievable that she’s really gone I still can’t wrap my head around the fact my little girl is gone, she was too young and innocent to go through everything she went through but still kept a smile through it all. I wasn’t able to spend alot of time with her but I’m so glad to have what time I was able to spend with her, I’m also glad I was able to come by and say my final goodbyes for now. Even though it hurts she’s no longer suffering and I know one day I’ll see her again, but until then rest easy Babygirl you’re in good hands now and Daddy loves you forever and always.
